Why Cooling?

Animal performance suffers exponentially as temperature increases. No matter what the animal, heat stress creates both short and long term effects to the herd. Indicators of heat stress vary between animals and often go unnoticed until its too late to prevent. The results can be dangerous for any farmer and include (but not limited to):

· Loss of Production
· Reduced Conception Rate
· Poor Conversion of Feed
· Health Issues (Expensive Vet Visits)

A successful cooling system will prevent heat stress before it even occurs. This requires a properly designed cooling system, specifically designed for your application and proper operation (ideally automated).

Benefits of Cooling

Reduces heat stress on the animals. Thus providing many of the benefits below :

· Healthy livestock

· Profitability of the animals

· Maintained reproduction rates

· Maintain performance, milk yields, growth rates etc

· Maintain feed intake.Maintain feed conversion ratios

· Reduce health issues directly and indirectly related to heat stress

Components of Cooling

Some components of cooling include but are not limited to:

Circulation Fans

Spraying System

Cooling Controller/APP

The Whole Ideally Automated Cooling System:

APP

Gateway

Temp Sensor

Fan

Spray Nozzle

Moonet APP

Soaking System

Ideally Visual AI Soaking System

Smart Spray Cooling System:

Soak the cows, save water and reap the rewards of increased production on your farm. Soaking only when the cow is present and conditions are warranted, lets you know that every drop of water yields a return on investment, all without wasting resources or overwhelming other systems. Smart Soaker makes soaking not only possible but profitable for your farm.

☐Give your hard - working dairy cows the opportunity to stand in a cooling shower at the feedbunk to relieve their heat stress.

☐Encourage your cows to eat and be cooled. They will reward you with more milk for a very healthy return on your investment.

☐The payback is fast , predictable , and a win - win for the cows and owners.

Terrui precise spray system:

This advanced solution is designed to provide tailored comfort for your livestock, ensuring efficient cooling based on the presence of dairy cows in the cooling zone.

◎Intelligent connected APP system for remote control

◎Precise spraying, more water-efficient, save 45% compared with traditional spray system

◎Larger water droplets for quickly wetting the cow's hair, reaching the surface of the cow's skin for rapid cooling

◎Stable operation, safe and reliable, reducing maintenance rates

◎Spraying error rate is less than 3%

Socking System Components Overview

1.Water supply

Water tank

Used to ensure an adequate water supply for spraying

Water pump

Flow Rate: 0.5~240m³/h

Head: 4.305 meters

Liquid Temperature: -15°C to +120°C

The selection of the water pump will depend on the length of the customer's cattle shed and the head of water supply.4.5KW, 5.5KW, and 7.5KW

Filter

Filtering solid particles and suspended matter to ensure the purity of the water quality

2.Video Judging System Module

Detect the presence of dairy cows in the cooling zone and activates the mist accordingly.

One camera can control 8 sprinkler

3.Smart AI Image Server and Control

Server

Data Processing Center, used to collect and process data captured by cameras and issue judgment

Instructions externally

Switch

Used for long-distance Ethernet cable layouts

Gateway

Serves as the central hub for direct communication between the camera, sprinkler control board, and server, transmitting information

4.Distributed Soaking Unit

Equipped with a slave board and solenoid valve for more intelligent control of opening and closing

5.Temperature and Humidity Sensor

The system can intelligently control the soaking system based on the temperature and humidity of the ranch. It can also be equipped with additional sensors for further intelligent control

6.Mobile APP:

Allow for remote/local management and monitoring of the cooling system.
